EIGSE CRAFT EXHIBITION

In Deighton Hall Exhibition Centre

1. Jim Behan is a self-taught potter making a wide range of hand thrown earthenware pots for domestic use. He uses native clays and his own glazes. He has been a member of the Craft Potters Society of Ireland for some years.
2. Paschal Fitzpatrick is a graduate of the National College of Art and Design. His work consists of one-off stained glass panels, terrariums and decorative mirrors. He also specialises in restoration work and one off commissions.
3. T.R. Hutton works in the ancient art of handcraft lettering using a variety of traditional styles. One can easily distinguish genuine handcarving from machined lettering in that uniform sections, particularly on rounded letters can only be satisfactorily achieved by hand.
4. Betty Higgins came to Ireland seven years ago, she specialises in Aran Knitwear.
5. John Kemp is Managing Director of Carlow Motors Ltd. does wood turning as a hobby. He is self-taught and likes to experiment with new methods, shapes and finishes. He uses native timbers and is always on the lookout for pieces with unusual features.

7. Michelle Dempsey studied at Carlow R.T.C. and graduated from the National College of Art and Design, specialising in ceramics, she makes handbuilt one off pots in a variety of clays with applied and incised decoration.
8. Lucy Maloney uses pure wool in hand knitted garments. She employs traditional patterns and makes a wide variety of items in many sizes and colours.
6. Gerald Kilcoyne is a woodturner producing a range of items including clocks, barometer lamps and plantstands, handturned in finest mahogany in rustic surroundings at Dowling, Tullow Co. Carlow.
9. Frances Mullins produces a variety of bean-bag creations to her own designs. She also makes pictures using a decoupage technique in which four or more identical prints are cut, bent shaped and layered so that the forms within the picture come alive with depth and texture.
10. Elizabeth Dunne is a wife and mother and Martina Nolan works full time in a shop. Both decided to use their spare time together doing something they enjoy and began making cot quilts for children. They expanded and now make a variety of patchwork items.
11. Colm and Oisín O'Brien are a wood-turning team. They produce a wide variety of items from both native and imported woods. They will accept commissions for one-off or for repeated pieces.
12. Helen Wheeler lives in Leighlinbridge and has been involved in craft work all her life. (her floral creations are well known particularly in the Carlow area).
13. Donal Nolan makes a wide range of decorative and functional items in wrought iron. He will accept orders for individual work.
14. Michael Fennelly lives in Stonyford, Co. Kilkenny and makes individual items in stained glass. He specialises in lamp shades and terraria. He has exhibited in Eige on several occasions.
15. The I.C.A. stand is a representative display of the Association's best work. The I.C.A. has always keen to foster all the traditional Irish crafts in particular and has done very valuable work in this mould down through the years.
16. Chris Kelly, a native of Hacketstown, lives in Dublin and is a regular exhibitor at Eige.
17. Oscar Grant is a native of Clonegal and works at a variety of crafts.
18. Pat Bramley has been making hand made gold jewellery for the past ten years, gaining experience abroad. He specialises in diamond grinding and stone setting and produces a range of wedding rings, eternity rings, dress and signet rings etc. He accepts commissions for individual pieces.

All items on exhibition are individually priced and may be purchased at the exhibition.
